

PUBLIC HEARING ON ACCESS TO AND PRESERVATION OF SCIENTIFIC INFORMATION

Monday 30th May 2011, 10.00 – 17.00

JMO Building - European Commission - Kirchberg L-2920 (Room M1) - Luxembourg

PROPOSED AGENDA

- 10.00 – 10.10 Welcome and introduction
Khalil Rouhana, Director, Digital Content & Cognitive Systems, DG Information Society and Media
- 10.10 – 10.20 Communication & Recommendation on scientific information: overview & calendar
Richard Swetenham, Head of Unit, Access to Information, DG Information Society and Media
- 10.20 – 10.30 Public hearing – Purpose and modus operandi
Gilles Laroche, Head of Unit, Ethics and Gender, DG Research and Innovation
- 10.30 – 11.30 Research evaluation systems
Chair: Richard Swetenham
Discussion following brief statements from:
- Mark Patterson (Public Library of Science)
 - Anne Joseph (Elsevier)
 - Cameron Neylon (Open Knowledge Foundation)
 - Susan Hezlet (London Mathematical Society)
 - Neil Jacobs (Joint Information Systems Committee)
- 11.30 – 12.30 Preservation of scientific outputs
Chair: Richard Swetenham
Discussion following brief statements from:
- David Giaretta (Alliance for Permanent Access)
 - Peter Burnhill (University of Edinburgh)
 - Robert Campbell (Wiley-Blackwell)
- 12.30 – 13.45 Lunch break

13:45 – 15:15 Access to scientific information (including Open Access)

Chair: Gilles Laroche

Discussions following rounds of brief statements:

1)

- Jos Engelen (Netherlands Organisation for Scientific Research)
- Michael Mabe (International Association of Scientific, Technical & Medical Publishers)
- Saskia de Vries (Amsterdam University Press)

2)

- Peter Gotzsche (University of Copenhagen)
- Jean-Pierre de Cuyper (Royal Observatory of Belgium)
- David Carr (Wellcome Trust)

15:15 – 15:30 Break

15:30 – 17:00 Discussion following rounds of brief statements (continued):

3)

- Paul Ayris (Association of European Research Libraries)
- Astrid van Wesenbeeck (Scholarly Publishing & Academic Resources Coalition Europe)
- Thomas Parisot (Cairn)

4)

- Elena Giglia (University of Turin)
- Salvatore Mele (European Organization for Nuclear Research, CERN)
- Caroline Sutton (Open Access Scholarly Publishers Association)

17:00 Close